

INDEX METHODOLOGY

NASDAQ TECHNOLOGY DIVIDEND™ INDEX

NQ96DIVUS™

INDEX DESCRIPTION

The Nasdaq Technology Dividend Index (the “Index”) is designed to measure the performance of up to 100 Technology and Telecommunications companies that pay regular or common dividends.

SECURITY ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA

To qualify for index inclusion, securities must meet the following Security Eligibility Criteria, which are applied as of the Reconstitution Reference Date.

Security Types

Eligible security types include common stock, ordinary shares and American Depositary Receipts (ADRs). References to the “issuer” of a depositary receipt are references to the issuer of the underlying security.

Multiple Securities Per Issuer

One security per issuer is permitted. If an issuer has multiple otherwise-eligible securities, one of which is an Index Security as of the Reconstitution Reference Date, only that security may be eligible; otherwise, only the security with the highest three-month average daily value traded (ADVT) may be eligible.

Listing Exchanges

A security must be listed on a U.S. exchange as defined in the Nasdaq Eligible Exchanges.

Industries and Sectors

A security must be classified under the Technology Industry or Telecommunications Industry as defined by the Industry Classification Benchmark (ICB). ICB is a product of FTSE International Limited that is used under license.

Market Capitalization

A security must have a market capitalization of at least $500 million (USD).

Liquidity

A security must have a three-month ADVT of at least $1 million (USD).

Seasoning

A security must have been traded for at least three months prior to the Reconstitution Reference Date.

Other Eligibility Criteria

A security must have paid a regular or common dividend within the past 12 months.

A security must not have had a decrease in common dividends per share paid within the past 12 months.

A security must have a dividend yield of at least 0.5%.

If, at index reconstitution, Nasdaq becomes aware that an issuer or security will soon undergo a fundamental change that makes it ineligible, Nasdaq will remove the security from consideration. This includes entering into a definitive merger or acquisition agreement or other pending arrangement that would make it ineligible for index inclusion, or a filing of bankruptcy or similar protection from creditors.

CONSTITUENT SELECTION

Constituent Selection Process

An index reconstitution is conducted semiannually based on the Reconstitution Reference Date.

Securities that meet the applicable Security Eligibility Criteria are considered for inclusion in the Index. The 100 securities with the highest dividend paid per share over the previous 12 months are included in the Index.

CONSTITUENT WEIGHTING

Constituent Weighting Scheme

The Index is a modified dividend value-weighted index.

Constituent Weighting Process

An index rebalance is conducted quarterly based on the Rebalance Reference Date.

Sector weights are set to the following values, which may only change when necessitated by security-level constraints:

- Technology: 80%
- Telecom: 20%

All Index Securities' initial weights are determined by dividing each Index Security's trailing 12-month dividend value by the sum of all Index Securities' trailing 12-month dividend values. The dividend value is calculated by multiplying dividends paid within the past 12 months by the current shares outstanding. Initial index weights are then adjusted separately by sector. Securities in the Technology sector undergo a two-stage weight adjustment while securities in the Telecom sector undergo a one-stage weight adjustment.

Technology Stage 1: Initial index weights of Technology Index Securities are adjusted to meet the following Stage 1 constraints, producing Stage 1 weights:

- No Technology Index Security weight may exceed 8% of the entire Index.
- The collective weight of Technology securities must equal 80%.

Technology Stage 2: Stage 1 weights of Technology Index Securities are adjusted to meet the following Stage 2 constraints, producing their final weights:

- For Technology Index Securities with the five largest modified dividend capitalizations among Technology securities, Stage 1 weights are maintained.
- For all other Technology Index Securities, no weight may exceed 4% of the entire Index.
- The collective weight of Technology securities must equal 80%.

Telecom: Initial index weights of Telecom Index Securities are adjusted to meet the following constraint:

- No Telecom Index Security weight may exceed 2% of the entire Index.
- The collective weight of Telecom securities must equal 20%.

The final set of index weights satisfies the following constraints:

- Securities in the Technology sector must have a collective weight of 80%, unless necessitated to change by security-level constraints.
- No Technology Index Security weight may exceed 8%.
- No more than five Technology securities may have weights exceeding 4%.
- Securities in the Telecom sector must have a collective weight of 20%, unless necessitated to change by security-level constraints.
- No Telecom Index Security weight may exceed 2%.

Index Shares are calculated by multiplying final Index Security weights by the Index's aggregate dividend market value and dividing by their respective Last Sale Prices.

For additional information about index weighting, see Nasdaq Index Weight Calculations guide.

INDEX MAINTENANCE

Deletion Policy

If, at any time during the year other than at an index reconstitution, an Index Security no longer meets the Eligibility Criteria or is otherwise determined to have become ineligible for inclusion in the Index, it is removed from the Index. This includes circumstances where an Index Security is determined to be ineligible for continued inclusion in the Index due to bankruptcy, delisting, or a definitive agreement that would likely result in the security no longer being Index eligible.

Additionally, an Index Security that suspends its dividend payments based on the prior ex-date of the last dividend distributed at each month's end will be removed at market open the next trading day after the third Friday of the following month. Please refer to Nasdaq's Corporate Actions and Events Manual – Equities for detailed handling of the aforementioned event types.

Replacement Policy

Index Securities deleted at any time during the year other than at an index reconstitution are not replaced.

Corporate Actions

In the interim periods between scheduled index reconstitution events, individual Index securities may be subject to a variety of corporate actions and events that require maintenance and adjustments to the Index. Specific treatment of each type of corporate action or event is described in Nasdaq Corporate Actions and Events Manual – Equities, which is incorporated herein by reference.

In certain cases, corporate actions and events are handled according to the weighting scheme or other index construction techniques employed. Wherever alternate methods are described, the Index will follow the “Market Cap Corporate Action Method.”

Index Share Adjustments

Changes in the price and/or Index Shares driven by corporate events such as stock dividends, stock splits and certain spin-offs and rights issuances are adjusted on the ex-date.

For handling of changes in total shares outstanding (TSO) greater than 10% arising from other corporate events, please refer to Nasdaq Corporate Actions and Events Manual – Equities.
